

the Human Princess was kidnapped by the Demon King and abducted to Demon King Castle

Once upon a time, when man and demon coexisted and fought with each other,

Little did they know, considering themselves as the "side which held her hostage."

The only ones capable of rescuing the Princess from Demon King Castle were the heroes.

The demons faced off against the humans who held that thought.

Demon King-sama...

What's wrong?

on the "side which was held hostage" instead...

the slightest notion never crossed their minds, that they would probably end up
